

News from the Nest
This week we have been busy in our outdoor area. The children have enjoyed the start of their new history topic and the Year One children have been working on algorithms as part of our computing unit.

Don't forget
PE kits are needed on a
Tuesday and Friday.
Warm coats as the weather
changes.